Dear Mac:

Please pardon my long delay in answering your letter, but I wanted to have all the information correct when I wrote you, and I have just gotten the papers.

Now first of all if you are going to return to the states before March 15th, I think it would be better for you to wait until you get here to fill your form out, as it may seem very complicated in this letter. First of all if you had only worked on one job all year it would be very simple, but you have worked for The Yankees The Eagles and in Cuba. I am enclosing your W2 form from The Eagles showing how much money we paid you, and how much income tax we with-held. You should get this same form from The Yankees. You will also have to declare how much money you made in Cuba. I do not know whether they issue these forms or not, but you will have to enter the ammount earned there in the form you have to fill. The form is number 1040. I will not include the form in this letter, but if you write me back, and say you want me to go ahead and file your return I will send it in my next letter.

Now if you want me to file your return, you will have to
